HOTEL FULLERTON (GARDENVILLE MOOSE) - ca. 1920 - 8012 Belair Road, Fullerton. This rambling, hip roofed, Colonial Revival structure was shown as new in the 1925 booster book, History of the Belair Road, when it served as a roadside restaurant, "Six Miles on the Belair Road, Tourists Accommodated." The building now (1994) serves as headquarters of the Gardenville Moose Lodge, which transplanted the name Gardenville to this site.
